

MEREDITH WILSON PARFET

FOUNDER & CEO, RAVENYARD GROUP

Crisis expert, hospice chaplain, investor, entrepreneur, philanthropist

Meredith wears many hats – CEO, hospice chaplain, crisis expert, entrepreneur, investor, philanthropist. Her exceptional background and experience informed a unique perspective on humanity in the workplace, especially during times of crisis.

Combining nearly two decades of asset management and hedge fund experience with work in hospice led her to understand that leaders and businesses in crisis need both technical expertise as well as support for their well-being. Her work as a chaplain, with an MA in Spiritual Care and hundreds of hours of clinical training in grief, trauma, and loss in secular settings and a non-religious capacity, means she offers a unique perspective on workplace crisis.
